Tankoa Yachts in Italy has launched Vertige, a 164-foot motoryacht scheduled for delivery in April.

Vertige is built entirely in aluminum. She has exterior design by Francesco Paszkowski and interiors by Paszkowski in cooperation with Margherita Casprini.

Coming in at 499 gross tons, Vertige has six staterooms including a full-beam owner's suite on the main deck. Also on board are a gymnasium, cinema, opening balconies, sole-to-ceiling windows and a garage for a 23-foot tender.

Full-displacement cruising: Vertige is expected to have a range of 5,000 nautical miles at 12 knots, with a 16-knot top end.
