25th MONACO YACHT SHOW

The finest samples of the world of yacht building and the crème de la crème of Yachting were there, at the Monaco Yacht Show. This year's 25th Show welcomed the best of Luxury Yachting and services.

BARRENTS SEA | MONDOMARINE

Parsifal, a company from Greece, participated with the Barrents Sea, a boat measuring 41.76m and built at Mondomarine. The boat has been designed by Luca Dino and the exterior design is the work of Studio Vafiadis.

MADAME KATE AMELS LIMITED EDITION

The new creation by Amels. Madame Kate is the second entry to the Amels Limited Edition 199 series. She measures 60 m in LOA and has been designed by Tim Heywood.

M/V YERSIN | PIRIOU

M/V Yersin is an exceptional 77m exploration yacht that is both a private boat and multi-purpose vessel for sailing on all oceans and in all weathers.

SUERTE S693 | TANKOA YACHTS

The much anticipated yacht by Tankoa Yachts finally made her debut. Measuring 69.90 m in LOA, Suerte (which we had the opportunity to see at the yard in July) was standing at a prominent position and attracted a lot of attention.

ESTER III | LURSSSEN

Ester III, delivered by Lürssen in 2014, is a sleek, 66m yacht that combines a truly authentic classic interior and unusual deck layout with a unique, distinct and masculine external profile. Ester III's interior has been designed by Raymond Langton Design.
